Little About Me

Born and raised in a small island called Penang; also known as The Food Paradise of Asia, Malaysia. Arrived in the land down under in the year 2004 and fell in love with the what the city has to offer and I've traded my food paradise and called Melbourne home.

I am married and was blessed with a little boy which turned 2 recently. Life as a father is an absolute joy that I wouldn't trade anything for.
